Women in Trades are Built Different

Join us for our next open house on December 7th 9am-5pm

Ladies, this is your chance! Orleans Technical College offers career training for those who want to use their hands (and minds!) to build, create, renovate and repair. Want to flip homes? Or, would you rather work with contractors in buildings, properties, stores, hotels and more? We provide training to get you to that next stage in your life. And, we assist with your job search, matching you with our employer partners in the carpentry, electrical, plumbing, HVAC, and building maintenance fields.
